

STEREOTYPED™ 101

An Exploration in Unconscious Bias

Stereotyped 101™ is a program uniquely designed to educate and cultivate a sincere comprehension of the intersection of modern day diversity, but with a focus on Inversity™ - inclusion and introspection. Karith Foster, professional comedian and speaker, uses the perfect blend of humor, interactive audience participation and heartfelt personal stories to engage her audience and shed light on taboo and sensitive subjects that include but are not limited to racism, LGBTQIA issues, class-ism, even size-ism and the many other predispositions that fall into the realm of our unconscious bias. This high-energy presentation prompts people to not just think about how we view the world and ourselves but how to actively promote change.

| Objectives | Outcomes | Teaching Strategies |
|---|--|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Create an awareness of the depths of stereotyping and the role they play in academic and social environments. 2. Illustrate that knowledge, awareness, and conscious empathy are key to combatting bias. 3. Encourage communication and expression of differences. 4. Facilitate constructive dialogue, interaction and understanding around significant issues of diversity. | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Impart students/faculty with skills to dissolve tension when issues of diversity and inclusion arise. 2. Empower each individual with the tools to embrace and appreciate their contribution to their diverse environment . 3. Ignite a mind shift in participants that promotes unity instead of division. 4. Strengthen organization bonds and objectives. | Lecture (Comedy, Storytelling, Visual media) PowerPoint Interactive Games / Activities Group Discussion/Panel Q & A |